

Make Money Immediately While Building a Lifetime Residual Income Stream — with $0 Investment

Announcing INCUBIZ from Coro

The world's fastest-growing security company

Coro is seeking driven individuals to join our Incubiz program as Authorized Security Consultants. We'll nurture you for 18 months with training, support, infrastructure — everything you need to grow a book of business.

After you graduate, you'll go Independent, but you will keep getting paid on all your customers while helping mid-market companies and SMBs solve their toughest cybersecurity challenges. Coro will always be there to help you grow and succeed.

Is Incubiz right for you?

Experience as an IT rep such as an MSP, VAR or in-house at a company is helpful but not required. What is necessary is drive. If you have the will, we'll give you the skills to succeed.

A six-figure income and more importantly, an enriched, exciting future could be waiting for you.

Coro will set you up for success:

- Immediate base salary with health benefits
- Office setup including a computer
- Prospecting leads to get new customers right away
